MIS LINA EDWIN

MATINEE TO-MO-(ROW AT 2:30 P. M.

(The stage.)

Mr. George Clarks has presented himself in a new play ent tied "Kank." which has a great many good and or ginal points. He have the review of a Lanca-arter ad, Miles fulbo, and he gives a vary true and life ike picture of the Kagtel peasant, nonest, homely, and wh unerring institutes. As a pice of dis ect actin, the is the best thin; that Ar. Carachas yet done. The roe is rel of true himor of dialogue and s unation, and he makes the most of both. Miss Lina Edwin, as too asynard, acts we city and naturally, and looks charming. The pot of the play is each in; and nicely relieved by the contrasts of society. It is benutivily flustrated by the best scenery and is interage sed with music and dances.

The performance of the new comedy of "Rank" is an effort in the Ro-estrophian sensol, the onalogue is entertaining, and a strong sympathy is quickly awakened in behalf of the renounced wife, Doe Maynard. Bliss Letwin plays this character very creditably. She inituses much feeling into her acting, a sinking from thorough sympathy and appreciation, and is, there ore, ery effective. She evinces an excellent conception of the character. Mr. George clarke has brought the character of Hubb into pleasing promininges by his heavy acting. The coundy is presented in a six-e worthy of the success which it is graffying to be ance to state, has at tended the production. The houses have been very internomenty will have a run.
